

Boston Properties Announces Exercise of Over-Allotment Option for $112.5 Million of 2.875% Exchangeable Senior Notes Due 2037

February 1, 2007 6:15 PM ET

BOSTON, Feb. 1 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Boston Properties, Inc. (NYSE: BXP), a real estate investment trust, announced today that the initial purchasers of $750 million aggregate principal amount of 2.875% Exchangeable Senior Notes due 2037 of Boston Properties Limited Partnership, a Delaware limited partnership and the Company's subsidiary ("BPLP"), have exercised in full their option to purchase an additional $112.5 million aggregate principal amount of notes to cover over-allotments, resulting in aggregate net proceeds from the offering of approximately $840.0 million.

As previously announced, the Company intends to use the net proceeds from the sale of the notes for the repayment of debt, development opportunities, asset acquisitions and other future investment opportunities. Pending the uses described above, the Company intends to invest the net proceeds in short-term, interest-bearing, investment-grade securities.

The notes were sold to qualified institutional buyers in accordance with Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933. The notes and the Boston Properties, Inc. common stock issuable upon exchange of the notes have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, or any state securities laws, and unless so registered, may not be offered or sold in the United States except pursuant to an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933 and applicable state laws. Boston Properties, Inc. and BPLP will file a registration statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission within 90 days relating to the resale of the notes and the Boston Properties, Inc. common stock issuable upon their exchange. This release shall not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any of these securities, nor shall it constitute an offer, solicitation or sale in any jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation or sale is unlawful.
