

Boston Properties Announces Richard E. Salomon Will Not Stand for Re-Election in 2010 after 11 Years of Service

October 26, 2009 4:03 PM ET

BOSTON--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Oct. 26, 2009-- Boston Properties, Inc. (NYSE: BXP), a real estate investment trust, announced today that Richard E. Salomon has decided that he will not stand for re-election to the Board of Directors upon the conclusion of his term at the 2010 annual meeting of stockholders in order to devote more time to his other business interests. Mr. Salomon has served on the Company's Board of Directors since November 1998, and he currently serves as Chairman of the Company's Compensation Committee.

Mortimer B. Zuckerman, Chairman of the Board of Directors, said, "Rick joined our Board following our acquisition of Embarcadero Center in 1998. For the past 11 years, he has contributed greatly to the strategic decisions that helped us achieve our many successes. He was consistently engaged in all the key decisions of Boston Properties and his advice and counsel will be missed. We thank him for his years of service."

Boston Properties is a fully integrated, self-administered and self-managed real estate investment trust that develops, redevelops, acquires, manages, operates and owns a diverse portfolio of Class A office properties and one hotel. The Company is one of the largest owners and developers of Class A office properties in the United States, concentrated in five markets – Boston, Midtown Manhattan, Washington, D.C., San Francisco and Princeton, N.J.
